

Prof. Huck and Prof. Pierson visited the Government Law College, Mumbai, India

Wolfenbüttel, 01.02.2016

The Government Law College, Mumbai (GLC), founded in 1855, is the oldest law school in Asia and one of the most distinguished law schools in India: <http://glcmumbai.com/about-glc.php>

The college, affiliated to the University of Mumbai, is run by the Government of Maharashtra. GLC has been referred to as the "unarguable giant in Indian legal education" by the Bar Council of India. GLC has been ranked as one of the top law colleges in India by various surveys and organizations.

After a visit and a talk with the Principal of GLC Judge Pramod Ambekar on Saturday Prof. Pierson and Prof. Huck were invited to deliver lectures at the GLC.

On Monday, the 18. January 2016, both scholars from the BELS in Wolfenbüttel were shortly introduced in front of the students by the Principal and delivered two lectures.

Prof. Dr. Matthias Pierson talked about "Intellectual Property Law in the European Union".

Prof. Dr. Winfried Huck highlighted some issues of "International Economic Law in the light of the Sustainable Development Goals of the UN".

The student's council of GLG emphasizes their interest, to participate at the International Summer Program of the BELS in 2016.

Text: W. Huck

Pictures: NN

v.l.n.r:
Prof. Pierson, Mruduta Chaudari (Student's Council),
Prof. Huck

v.l.n.r: Mruduta Chaudari (Student's Council),
Prof. Rachita Ratho;
Prof. Umesh Aswar;
Prof. Winfried Huck;
Prof. Pierson,
Principal of GLC Judge
Pramod Ambekar; Sachin Sharma (Student's Council);
Vidhi Shah (General
Secretary - Student's Council)

Prof. Pierson lecturing

Prof. Huck lecturing